

Auburn Garden Club Minutes
January 28, 2008

The meeting was called to order at 9:30 A.M. by president Peggy Beltramo. Officers present were Clair Gumz, Marti Magenheimer, Linda Ewing and Carol Murray. The minutes of the November meeting were approved with no changes.

Treasurer Carol Lee Murray gave her report with an ending checkbook balance of $7,152.25

Announcements:

Plant Sale: Garth Chamblin said more cashiers will be needed for the sale. The date of the plant sale has been moved to April 19. Marti Magenheimer requested volunteers to provide food for the workers at the sale.

Kortne Phillips announced that the Master Gardeners are having a gardening symposium on March 1 with lunch included at a cost of $25.

Saul Wiseman will be hosting plant propagation on February 21 at 10:00 A.M.

There will be a non-profit event at Copia in Napa on September 19, 20, and 21 entitled 'The Late Show Gardens' with many well-known speakers.

Elly Cadiente reminded us of the upcoming field trips: The Flower Farm and lunch February 12 and a trip to Boonie Lang's wonderful garden on March 25.

Rich Krach entertained us with his horticultural sharing of seasonal plants and flowers.

Old Business: There was none.

New Business: There was a tree count of the membership. We all have planted 254 trees in 2007.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 A.M.

The program following the meeting was guest speaker Trey Pitsenberger, of the Golden Gecko Nursery in Garden Valley, discussing what is new for 2008.
